

the only way to assure compliance of hours of service is to mandate the use of eobr. we use them and comply with the hours of service.if our competitors are not compling,they have an unfare advantage in serving customers. all truck drivers will be on a level playing field,whoever they are working for.